

American College
UNIVERSITY INSTITUTE

Higher University Technology

CRIMINALISTICS

15 JULY 2005

Title: Advanced University-Level Technology in Forensic Science

Duration: 3 years

Format: Hybrid

Schedule: Nocturne

Mission

To lead the training of university professionals in Criminalistics, based on high and modern international standards of quality, scientific research and forensic skills, which consolidate the security and confidence of our services and of society in general.

Vision

To train proactive and competent criminalistics professionals who, through the analysis of clues and evidence, supported by scientific techniques and procedures, efficiently determine the material causes and perpetrators of crimes and offenses, in order to actively collaborate with the administration of justice in the respective application of penalties and sanctions.

ABOUT THE CAREER

Graduate Profile

- Understand the basic definitions of criminalistics.
- Know the main theories of law and justice.
- Apply methods and techniques for the proper handling of evidence.
- Understand the importance of the chain of custody.
- Tools for the forensic process.
- Understand the psychological processes that govern human behavior.
- Create profiles in criminal investigations.

Advanced University-Level Technology in Forensic Science Curriculum

1st Semester	Introduction to Criminalistics	Introduction to Law	Basic Chemistry	Calculus	ICTs Applied to Criminalistics	Oral and Written Expression
2nd Semester	Research Methodology	Basic Biology	Fundamentals of Criminal Law	Professional Ethics	Physics	Forensic Drawin and Photography
3rd Semester	Handling and Processing of Evidence	Technical Crime Scene Investigation	Introduction to General and Forensic Psychology	Document Examination	Interculturality, Equity, and Law
4th Semester	Crime Tracking Techniques	Forensic Medicine	Audio, Video, and Audiovisual Media	Fundamentals of Forensic Psychology	Criminal Sociology	Cybercrime Tracking
5th Semester	Organizational Psychology	Forensic Toxicology	Criminal Procedure	Traffic Accident Investigation	Profile Creation	Criminal Investigation
6th Semester	Human Identity	Ballistics	Forensic Anthropology	Identification of Engravings and Serial Numbers	Thesis Project

Strengths of the Program

1. Duration: 9 months (recognition of prior learning).
2. Flexible and adaptable schedules.
3. Highly qualified faculty.
4. Opportunity to specialize through a master's degree.
5. The degree meets COESCOP regulations (valid for job promotions).
6. Accessible, user-friendly platform that's easy to use from any device with an Internet connection.

Lead Through Technological Innovation and strategy in key institutions

Contact us today

Reserve your spot

Escanea
el código QR

Av. Gonzáles Suarez y Manuel Paredes

096 899 8914 - 098 491 8284

INSTITUTO UNIVERSITARIO

For more information:

www.americancollege.edu.ec

“Where your experience becomes a qualification”

